

Grey Gum

EUCALYPTUS PROPINQUA

Grey Gum - A Classic Ruby

Having a classical ruby red colour, Grey Gum is a stunning timber species with a demanding cathedral grain pattern and exquisite natural features that highlight the species sophisticated look & feel.

Grey Gum is amongst the hardest timbers available in the world, having a Janka rating of 14 it is ideally suited for flooring in both busy households and high traffic commercial areas.

Grey Gum grows typically in the Northern Rivers area of NSW through to the Queensland border.

Botanical Name	Eucalyptus Propinqua
Colour	Ruby red
Features	Tight interlocking grain with large cathedral grain patterns
Janka Ranking	14

For more information and to download the complete brochure go to www.hardwood.com.au

Available from:

NASH
TIMBERS

Phone: 02 9337 6800

Fax: 02 9337 1595

Email: info@nashtimbers.com.au

Web: www.nashtimbers.com.au